DATASHEET

Supplier Collaboration Workspace

Develop collaborative supplier relationships & become customer of choice

As the challenges to enterprise businesses continue to grow, many organisations are looking towards their supply base for answers to their most pressing needs and engaging in Supplier Collaboration efforts.

Though some pockets of excellence exist, collaborations frequently derail due to a lack of systematic management. Without the processes, capability, and technology to collaborate strategically and at scale, procurement encounters friction in getting the most out of its relationships.

As a key component of our Supplier Collaboration & Innovation platform, Vizibl's Supplier Collaboration Workspace provides one central location to collaborate systematically with internal and external stakeholders on projects that are directly linked to shared goals and quantitative measures of value.

Features

-  Launch time-bound, measurable Projects from one central location to formalise the collaboration process alongside internal and external stakeholders alike.
-  Assign Value Trackers to Projects to forecast and measure their progress against key performance indicators over time, proving the value of Supplier Collaboration.
-  Pull Projects into Dashboards in Vizibl and use fully flexible custom Tagging to segment data, giving you as broad or as granular a view of performance as desired.
-  Run 180 and 360 degree surveys to assess sentiment on both sides of the relationship, conduct gap analysis, and proactively make course corrections.
-  Assess overall relationship performance across three custom-configurable dimensions: operational, relational, and transformational.

Benefits

-  Find new time and resource efficiencies by collaborating on projects from one centralised workspace alongside internal and external stakeholders.
-  Ensure your work is making progress against your goals by linking all collaborations to the strategic, measurable objectives outlined for the relationship.
-  Move beyond operational work and pool your time and resources on strategic Projects that generate measurable value to your organisation.
-  Use Surveys to gain a transparent and reliable indicator of sentiment and relationship health to ensure your most valuable partnerships remain on track.
-  Drive alignment, accountability, and good governance with functionality that makes it clear who owns a project or task, when it's due, and what's expected of them.
